

Parkinson's Disease Nurse Specialist Association Virtual Conference 2021

Day 1 Wednesday 8th September Pharmaceutical Educational Sponsored Sessions

08.30 Welcome

Jane Price, Parkinson's nurse advanced practitioner, Chair PDNSA

08.45 Britannia Pharmaceuticals Ltd

Device aided therapy; meeting the need and sustaining the benefit

- Which PD patients are suitable for device aided therapies (DAT)?
- Are we meeting the needs of patients with advanced PD?
- How can we optimize patient retention in treatment?

Professor Tove Henriksen

09.35 Bial Pharma UK Ltd

The burden of care and current treatment characteristic

Professor Peter Jenner; Professor Tom Foltynie

10.20 Break - 10 minutes

10.30 EVER Pharma UK Ltd

D-Mine - evidence and practice

Dr James Bolt; Greg Thay; Shelley Turner

11.20 GE Healthcare UK

Top tips on diagnosing the atypical Parkinsonian disorders

Dr Naheed Khan

12.05 Lunch - 45 minutes

12.50 Zambon / Profile Pharma Ltd

- Older people with complex Parkinson's disease – finding the therapeutic balance
- Adapting services to meet the needs of patients with Parkinson's with supporting safinamide case studies

Dr Lucy Strens; Dr Laura Daunt

13.35 Global Kinetics Corporation

The impact of Covid-19 and how the PKG® can benefit your patients

- Validity of patient diaries, electronic diaries and monitoring of non-motor symptoms
- Wearable sensors and smartphone technology

Professor Per Odin; Professor Ray Chaudhuri

14.20 Break - 10 minutes

14.30 Kyowa Kirin International plc

Practical guide to wearable devices - identifying and managing fluctuations in PD

Dr Jonathan Evans

15.20 Merz Pharma UK Ltd

Service delivery for the management and treatment of chronic sialorrhea (drooling) ... 2 years on

- Developing the East Cheshire sialorrhea service
- Current practice with the management of drooling in Cornwall

Patsy Cotton, ANP Parkinson's; Lynne Osborne, Parkinson's consultant nurse;
John Lambert, UK Manager

16.05 Break - 10 minutes

16.15 PD Neurotechnology Ltd

Digital technologies and Parkinson's disease

Prof Spyros Konitsiotis

17.00 AbbVie Ltd

Moving beyond Covid-19: how to process the pandemic's impact on nurses' mental wellbeing and respond to associated challenges for Parkinson's services

- Mental resilience in the wake of COVID-19 - being at our best to tackle what lies ahead.
- Responding to the challenges of the backlog in Parkinson's services - what role does telemedicine have now?
- Staying connected through the pandemic and beyond

Alison Leake, movement disorder CNS; Dr Sonya Wallbank; Miriam Parry, PDNS

17.50 Round up and close

Jane Price, Parkinson's nurse advanced practitioner, Chair PDNSA